Laboring Class Censured For Demanding Shorter Work Day.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 17 .- Emphasized increased production to decrease the living cost, delegates to the convention of the American Mining congress, which opened here today, censured the laboring class for demanding a shorter work day.

Actions against radicalism cannot be too drastic, the delegates emphasized "Production, which America needs most of all at present, cannot increase if the laboring class obtains a work day two hours shorter than the pres-ent standard, declared Bulkeley Wells, of Denver, president of the congress.

On Saturday Men Came In Crowds

From early morning until closing time Saturday the Men's Shop was filled with buyers. Hundreds of men who wanted new clothes, but who have delayed buying on account of high prices, have welcomed this sale as no event has been welcomed in years.

The sale goes on again tomorrow with the stocks enlarged by another mammoth shipment that arrived late Saturday. Those who come early will, naturally, have the advantage of the best assortments. Come in just for a look.
